Out-Patient Alcohol Counseling Agencies

The following is a list of alcohol counseling agencies in the surrounding area. The Court does not make recommendations for any particular agency. Further, it will be the Defendant's responsibility to choose a program that best fits his or her needs. The Defendant will need to make contact with an agency within the number of days required by the Court and provide proof or information to the assigned Probation Officer. If the counseling agency has a waiting list, you will need to get your name on the waiting list for the next available appointment. It is the Defendant's responsibility to return the Court paperwork to the Probation Officer by the specified deadline. (Please, due to confidentiality, no calls from family members.) Other referrals are available upon request.
